Near this Place are deposited the precious Remains of MAYNARD COLCHESTER, Esqr. Deceased honourably descended being the eldest Son of Sir DUNCOMB COLCHESTER, late of this Parish by ELIZABETH, Daughter of Sir JOHN MAYNARD, deed ONE OF THE Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal of England. But much more honourable and worthy to be had in everlasting Remembrance for those truly noble Qualities which by the Grace of God he was early possessed of and perservered in to the last, and whereby he was enable to discharge with great Judgement, inflexible Integrity and undaunted Courage the several Offices and Trusts which without seeking he was called to by his Prince and Country and to devise and do many great and liberal things for the honour of God and good of mankind, having been a principal Founder, and Supporter of the Societies for Reformation of Manners and promoting Christian knowledge by Charity Schools, of which he set up, and maintained several at his own Charge, and likewise one of the first Members of ye Society for propagating the Gospel in Foreign Parts and a generous Encourager of that and many other good designs.
This Excellent Person as strictkly pious Himself and zealous to promote true Piety in others within his reach, especially in his own Family and was thought to have been so singularly happy herein as to have overpaid the Debt of Filial Duty and Gratitude by being an Instrument of Spiritual Life to him from whom he had only Received that which was Natural.
He was an affectionate Husband, a tender and carefully Parent, a kind and faithfull Friend, a true Lover of all good Men, tho differing from him and ready to every good work particularly those of Charity to ye Poor and distressed, For whom he yearly set apart a large proportion of his Income which was strictly tho’ secretly applied to the most useful Charities.
This Christian Hero was exercised for many years with almost constant sickness and the most acute pains which he bore with exemplary Patience and an entire submission to the Divine ill and pleasure and at length joyfully reign’d up his pious Soul into the hands of his faithful Creator and merciful Redeemer ye 25 of June 1715, in the 51 Year of his Age, leaving 3 Daughters:- ANNE, JANE and ELIZABETH by JANE the only Daughter of Sir EDWARD CLARKE --- dec’d late Lord Mayor of London his loving and dutifull Wife and now mournful Widow.

Arms of COLCHESTER, as before.

In Hopes of a happy Resurrection near this Place lies the Body MAYNARD COLCHESTER, Esqr. Nephew and Heir of Col. MAYNARD COLCHESTER, to whose Memory a Monument is erected. He was Grandson to Sir DUNCOMB COLCHESTER, and Great grandson of that eminent Lawyer, and Friend to the Constitution and Liberties of England, Serjeant MAYNARD. He retained thro' Life with his own Choice and Judment an hereditary Affection for the Laws, the Religion and Civil Rights of Englishmen, as Established by the Revolution. From this Principle, he ever manifested a firm Attachment to the illustrious House of Hanover, and the Protestant Succession, particularly during the Rebellion in 1746, and approved himself by his Conduct at all times a vigilant, active, and prudent Magistrate and a friend to Society. In private Life, he was a good Christian, a kind Father and indulgent Master, was cautious and discerning in his choice of Friends and steady and unchangeable towards them when chosen.
His whole Character did Himself and Family honour, and needs not Praises, but deserves Imitation, Died May 25th 1756, Aged 53.
