Western Mail, Cardiff, Wales

Thursday 23 March 1882

ASSAULT ON MINNIE MORSE OF YORKLEY
Coleford (before St James Campbell Bart)

George Jenkins and William Guest, boys of Whitecroft, near Lydney, were charged with assaulting Minnie Morse of Yorkley on the 5th ult. It appeared the complainant (who wished to withdraw from the charge) and others were returning home from a place of worship when defendants pelted them with clay. One of them threw a piece which struck the complainant on the face. She protected herself with an umbrella, when Guest struck her with his fist. Defendants were fined 10 shillings each and costs.

Submitted by Janet Rigby