When in my health, I little thought
The time was come so near,
That I should leave all earthly friends
That were to me so dear.

Be warned, then, by my sudden call,
For death you must prepare :
The time will come—you know not when
The manner, how, or where.

IN LOVING MEMORY

OF

GEORGE MORRIS,

(OF STEAM MILLS),

WHO DIED, DECEMBER 21st, 1902,

AGED 25 YEARS.

Interred at Holy Trinity Churchyard, December 24th.