Lydbrook Ferryman's Funeral

WITH regret we record the death of Mr. Alexander Morgan of Ruardean, a well known and highly respected citizen of Lydbrook and Ruardean. Mr. Morgan started his career in the tin mines of Redbrook and Lydbrook, and was later employed at Arthur and Edward colliery for 30 years. For a great many years he operated the ferry boat at Lydbrook and was a keen fisherman. Since his retirement he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. [illegible] Watkins, at Ruardean, where he died last week at the age of 83 years.

The funeral took place at Lydbrook Parish Church, where the Rev. Bert Prime (Vicar) officiated. The bearers were Messrs. G. Jones, P. Dulley, C. Mason, A. Jones.

Mourners: Alf (son); Linda (daughter); Hazel (sister); Oliver and Trevor (brothers); Tony and Heather (grandchildren); Maurice (son-in-law); Ivy (daughter-in-law); Nell (sister-in-law); Tommy, Ray, Bert and Tommy (nephews).

Wreaths were sent by: Linda, Maurice and Grandchildren; Alf and Ivy; Heather and Lin; Hazel and Stan; Oliver and Nell; Trevor, Lucy and Tom; Bert, Ray, Tommy and Vera, Lydbrook; Tommy, Brierley; Mr. and Mrs. H. Jones and family; Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Sleeman and Mrs. Clowes.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

MORGAN.—The son and daughter of the late Mr. Alexander Morgan, sincerely thank all who sympathised with them; especially Mrs. H. Weaver and the Rev. Bert Prime.—Ruardean.
