CHRIST CHURCH.

DEATH OF MR. CHARLES JONES.—We regret to hear that his relatives in this district have during the past few days received information of the death, at Hawara, near Taranaki, New Zealand, of Mr. Charles Jones, formerly of Christ Church. His demise occurred after a lengthy illness on July 13th, at the age of 59 years. Deceased was the second son of the late Mr. James Jones, monumental sculptor, and at his death the business was for some years carried on by his sons George (now of Cinderford) and Charles. Like his father and other members of the family, the deceased was actively connected with Church matters, and had held the office of churchwarden. Nine years ago, he, with his wife and family, left Christ Church for New Zealand, his youngest brother Fred and his wife also making the journey. There are seven children left, the business being carried on by three of the sons. The second son, Harry, has a commission in a New Zealand Regiment, and is now undergoing training in this country. Mr. Jones only survived his wife by about 13 months.
