

County gets a soaking

■ It's the only way to travel at times like these! Kevin James and Kozmo Hayes paddle their canoe down the highway at Lower Lydbrook in the Forest of Dean. Floods were today still causing chaos across Gloucestershire with three red warnings on the River Wye, and five on the River Severn and warnings of more severe wet weather to come at the weekend. The Forest of Dean is suffering the worst with homes flooded and roads closed.

Water, water everywhere: Full report