LYDBROOK.

DEATH OF AN OLD INHABITANT.—A familiar figure has passed from our midst, in the person of Mr. John Innes, of the "Anchor," who, at the ripe old age of 94, has gone over to the majority.

ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday last, as a little lad, son of Mr. George Lane, of Camomile Green, was running down Worrall Hill, his foot slipped and threw him down, breaking his left leg. A companion, having raised an alarm, the sufferer was conveyed to his home and promptly attended by Dr. Fletcher, under whose care he is progressing favourably.