LYDBROOK.

MARRIAGE OF THE REV. A. W. LATHAM.—On Thursday of last week "those white-favoured horses" were on duty in the pretty town of Ledbury (already gay with preparations for the Foresters'. Fête), the occasion being the marriage of the Rev. A. W Latham (minister of the Baptist Chapel, Lydbrook) with Miss Emma Roberts, eldest daughter of Mr. Roberts, of Ledbury. The marriage was solemnised in the Baptist Chapel, the Rev. Mr. Brown officiating. After the ceremony the wedding party proceeded to the home of the Bride, where the breakfast was laid. Early in the afternoon the happy couple left by rail for Llangollen, en route for Barmouth. There were numerous expressions (by gifts and otherwise) of the esteem in which the Bride was held by a large circle of friends at Ledbury, where her steady unselfish efforts for the good of those around her have evidently won the hearts of all who knew her, and we have no doubt the same influence will be felt in that spot in the Forest to which her choice has led her. Among the presents was a handsome photograph of Lady Henry Somerset, with autograph inscription. The bride wore a grey cashmere dress and grey bonnet with feather and pearls. The bridesmaids were attired in dresses of cream nun's veiling, trimmed with heliotrope, and hats to match.
