MARRIAGE OF MISS LILIAN GWILLIAM.—Many well-wishers and friends assembled on Thursday at Christ Church when the Vicar (the Rev. Dr. Wyndham Jones) married Leonard George, son of Mrs. and the late John Roberts, formerly of the Scowles, Coleford, to Lilian, third daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Oliver Gwilliam, of Shortstanding. Miss Stella Dix was at the organ and the hymns sung were "The Voice that breathed o'er Eden," and "Lead us, Heavenly Father, Lead us." The bride, who entered the Church on the arm of her brother, Mr. Fred Gwilliam, was attired in a gown of ivory crushed velvet, with halo of orange blossom and embroidered veil, ivory satin shoes and sheaf of madonna lilies. The elder bridesmaid was Miss Margaret Gwilliam (sister of the bride) who wore a gown of Parma velvet, gold halo, shoes and gloves to match and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and fern. The two small bridesmaids, Miss Joyce Delaney and Miss Margaret Benfield (neices of the bride), wore gowns of yellow velvet with net frills, and headdresses of yellow rose-buds, while each carried a posy of yellow roses. All the bouquets were the gifts of the bridegroom. The duties of the best man were carried out by Mr. Walter Roberts (brother of the bridegroom). Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home, after which Mr. and Mrs. Roberts left for Lydney en route for Torquay, South Devon, where the honeymoon is being spent, the bride travelling in a blue crepe two-piece suit, with hat, shoes, and stocking to match. Their future home is at Cinderford. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a fur coat, while the bride's gift to the groom was a gold watch, a large number of presents being received. The elder bridesmaid received a handbag from the groom and the two small attendants ivory prayer books.
