DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT.—We much regret to record the death of Mrs. S. A. Morgan, the dearly beloved wife of Mr. Alfred Morgan, of 22, Dockham Road, Cinderford, who peacefully passed away on Saturday evening. Mrs. Morgan, who had lived a very active life, was a consistent and devoted member of the Wesley Church. She enjoyed good health until about 18 months ago, when she underwent a serious operation at the Dilke Hospital. She was gradually improving and it was hoped that she would ultimately be restored to her former good health. However, the cold, bitter weather of last February proved too much for her, and she caught a chill, from which she never recovered. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon, the first portion of the services being at the Wesley Church. The Rev. G. H. Kay, the superintendent minister, conducted the service, which was most impressive. The hymns, "O God, our Help" and "Jesus still leads on" were sung, and a full and kindly tribute was paid to the deceased by Mr. Kay. The interment took place at St. John's churchyard, Mr. Kay again officiating. The principal mourners were: Husband and family, Will and John (brothers), Harry and Tom (brothers-in-law), Hilda, Alice, Ada, Rodley, Ettie, Cheltenham, Alice, Dunley (nieces), Will (Cheltenham), Tom, Rodley, Charlie, Drybrook, Syd., Ollie, Will and Charlie, Cinderford (nephews), and Jim (cousin), Cinderford. The pall-bearers were Messrs. E. J. Hale, T. Lewis, W. Parsons, H. Perkins, H. Latchem and H. Carpenter, and the bearers Messrs. H. Adams, F. Ferley, Amos Field and L. Cooper. The following is a list of the beautiful floral tributes which testified to the kindly regard for one whose life in her home and among friends in the church and elsewhere was most usefully spent:—In tender memory of a good Wife and Mother, from her loving Husband and Children; In loving memory of dear Gran., from all her Grandchildren; In loving memory, from Bert and family, Worcester; In loving memory of dear Aunt, from Alice, Walter and Ken., Dursley; With deepest sympathy, from Charlie, Lily, Will, Rose and Children; With deepest sympathy, from Mary, Marjorie and Tom, Westbury-on-Severn; In loving memory of Aunt, from Lionel, Alice, Jim and Ada, Westbury-on-Severn; In remembrance of Aunt Sarah, from Sid., Nell and family; With deepest sympathy and in loving remembrance, from Cousin Jim and Agnes, 8, Stockwell Green; In loving memory, from Ellen, Hettie and Will, Cheltenham—"To His own, His well beloved, the Father giveth rest"; Sincere sympathy, from Frank and Jane, Cheltenham—"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord"; sincere sympathy, from Jenny and Harry; soncere sympathy from Emily and Tom; In affectionate remembrance and with sincere sympathy, from Mrs. Hardwick and family; Sincere sympathy, from J. Brobyn and family—"But oh, the joy upon the shore, To tell the voyage perils o'er"; With sincere sympathy, from Dr. and Mrs. McClellan; With sincerest sympathy, from Charles A. J. Hale and Eustace J. Hale; In affectionate remembrance, from Wesley Church and Women's Guild—"At rest"; With deepest sympathy, from Wesley Senior Classes and Choir; In kind remembrance and sincere sympathy, from Mr. and Mrs T. E. Ferley and family; In loving memory of our dearest Friend, from Mr. and Mrs. Reeves and Family, Gloucester; In deepest sympathy, from Mrs. S. Dunkley—"Peace, perfect Peace"; In sincere sympathy, from Nora, Eastbourne; With deepest sympathy, from the Wagon Dept., Mirey Stock; In affectionate remembrance, from Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Walker, Birmingham.