

GLOUCESTER YEOMEN IN IRELAND.

Seven local men, formerly in the Gloucestershire Yeomanry and now in the Gloucestershire Regiment, at Ballyvonare Camp, recuperating after injuries received in France. Back row.—Pte. R. Bradley (Tibberton), Pte. G. V. Margrett (Deerhurst), Pte. C. Baker (Bourton).
Front row.—Pte. B. Payne (Minchinhampton), Sergt. D. Wagstaff, instructor (Gloucester), Pte. C. Turner (Gloucester), L.-Cpl. W. Bunyan (Dursley.

*****|**********|********|**********|**

Cheltenham Chronicle and Gloucestershire Graphic Newspaper

CORPL. H. W. HYETT, Gloucester Regiment, killed in action April 5th, aged 22 years. Eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyett, High-street, Tewkesbury, and grandson of the late Mr. W. Hyett, Brick House, Highnam, near Gloucester.

Cheltenham Chronicle and Gloucestershire Graphic Newspaper

SERGT. MAURICE CARTER, Gloucester Regt., reported missing on May 8th, 1917, now a prisoner of war in Germany. Youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Carter, Norton House, Longhope, Glos. He was an old Crypt Grammar School boy.

Cheltenham Chronicle and Gloucestershire Graphic Newspaper

Gloucestershire Men Prisoners of War in Germany.

The above is a photo taken at Xmas of some British prisoners of war in Germany. On the left is Sergt. M. Carter, Gloucester Regiment, of Longhope, who was taken prisoner in May last. Seated next to him is another Gloucestershire Regiment man.

Cheltenham Chronicle and Gloucestershire Graphic Newspaper

Some 8th Gloucesters in France.

A few local men in the 8th Gloucesters now in the trenches in France.

Top row.—Ptes. J. E. Poulson (Kilcote), F. Tyrrell (Huntley), J. Howell (Cirencester).

Second row.—Ptes. W. Sysum (Huntley), W. James (Cheltenham), Lance-Corpl. G. Miles (Cheltenham).

Bottom row.—Brothers Ptes. O. C. Matthews and W. G. Matthews (Huntley). Latter now discharged as medically unfit.